Children's DressesAn Offering Worth Every Mother's Consideration

The "Pearl" is a Knit Waist for Boys and Girls. To introduce this Waist to the mothers of Barre we are allowed the privilege of selling these Waists ONE DAY ONLY

FOR 21c EACH

One point alone—the tubular straps—places this Waist far and away ahead of any other knitted Waist. Note this point well! These tubular straps have more than double the strength of the ordinary straps. And there's give in them—none of that rigid strain of the cloth straps. The "Pearl" has more straps, too, than any other similar Waist. And the arm hole, where the strain is the greatest, is faced with tubular strapping, giving a strong double edge. And the REGULAR PRICE, 25c, is no more than for the ordinary.

Mrs. Belle Batchelder, Miss Stella Clapp, and Mrs. Geo. Mann took the midnight train Monday for Front Royal, Va., where they go to attend commencement exercises at Eastern college. Miss Batchelder and Miss Elsa Clapp are to graduate at that institution.

His horse scared by an electric car on South Main street last evening a man named Connors of Granville was thrown heavily from the wagon to the curb and injured considerably about one hip. The animal started but got only a little distance before it was pulled up short by the reins winding in the wheels. The reins were so taut that the horse was thrown back onto its haunches, so that two men easily made the capture.

Special train service was advertised for the ball game at Intercity park yesterday afternoon, but the service was about as poor as anything ever attempted here. The Montpelier & Wells River R. R., generally up-to-date, had only one car on the late afternoon train to this city and a part of the big crowd squeezed themselves into that and got home after enduring a good deal of discomfort. The electric cars were likewise crowded beyond their capacity.

C. and citizens marching to the cemetery where the graves were decorated returning to the town hall for the closing exercises. The address was by Congressman Haskins.

WEBSTERVILLE.

The meetings at the Baptist church are increasing in interest and attendance. More than a score have taken a stand for Christ, and the better life. New ones are coming every evening. Only three evenings are left beside the Sunday, of the evangelist's stay with us, and it is hoped many may be won in that time.

SOUTH BARRE.

The ladies of the Universalist church wish to thank the people for their attendance at the social given by them. They especially wish to thank the young people who took part and made everything a complete success.
